General information about the structure and exam regulations:

- You will find on modulux all information about courses and the structure of the program as well as all legal regulations of the program, please inform yourself here about the content of the courses. When you enter “035” as number for the study program you will find it:
https://modulux.whz.de/en/app-modulux/frontend/study-programs/?no_cache=1#CurriculumFe19664
- Here you can find our learning management system “moodle”. Please log-in with the university data to receive all necessary information about your courses:
<https://moodle.whz.de/moodle/login/index.php>

Information about Courses and the Schedule:

- I attached you the current study schedule, which will be updated through the semester. Please also follow this link to get access to the university management system, which is important to register for courses and exams.
<https://campus.fh-zwickau.de/qisserver/pages/cs/sys/portal/hisinoneStartPage.faces>
- Following this link you will find the semester year schedule, which will show you the exam period, holidays and important dates. Every student should check this schedule:
https://www.whz.de/fileadmin/studium/docs/studienjahresablaufplaene/academic_calendar_2026-2027.pdf

- Your courses will start on Monday, September 28, 2026. However, as some students arrive late we will try to offer courses online or in a hybrid format. Please always check your university mail and the Moodle course for time changes.
- We have a course database called Modulux. Here you will find the study program and outline. You need to enter the study course number "035" to access the program.
 - Modulux link: <https://modulux.whz.de/app-modulux/frontend/studiengaenge/>
- This semester, you will have 4 compulsory courses:

- Please participate in this survey to inform me about your elective course choices.
- We use a learning management system called Moodle. Please register on Moodle and enroll in the courses you plan to study. This is not an official registration but will be used for communication and information purposes.
- Please also enroll in the courses you are studying in our campus management system
- Also, please register for MS Teams through the university.

Information about the Campus:

- We have two campus:
 - Campus Scheffelfberg: Scheffelfstraße 39, 08066 Zwickau – Maps-Link: Where most of your lectures will take place.
 - Campus City Center: Kornmarkt 1, 08056 Zwickau – Maps-Link: Where some computer science-related courses will be held.
- A room code starting with the letter “S” indicates that the lecture is at Campus Scheffelfberg. For example:
 - S6113 means Campus Scheffelfberg, House 6, Room 113
 - S5114 means Campus Scheffelfberg, House 5, Room 114
 - LG113 means Campus Scheffelfberg, House “Lehrgebäude” (Lecturing Hall), Room 113
- PKB113: This code refers to Campus Center in the building PKB, Room 113.
- This link will guide you to a campus map, so it is easier for you to find the rooms: <https://mobile.whz.de/map/index.php>
- This link will show you updated maps of our campus and will help you find the rooms: <https://www.whz.de/hochschule/organisation/zentrale-hochschulverwaltung/dezernat/dezernat-technik-und-beschaffung/lageplaene/>
