Tender offer of the GEORGIUS-AGRICOLA-Internship Scholarship for international students 2025

GEORGIUS-AGRICOLA-Internship- Scholarship

In collaboration with the Freiberg Student Union, the International Office and the Career Service of the University of Applied Sciences Zwickau is offering AGRICOLA-Internship-Scholarships for international students doing an internship in Saxony. The internship must be in Saxony and must take place within the time period October until December 2025. Please note, that the internship may start before October or last after December. The scholarships are valid from October 1st until December 31st, 2025, which means that the internship must take place within this period (but can still have begun before October or after) The amount of the money is €300 per month: at least 150€ from the company where you are doing your internship, and 150€ delivered by the university.

International students who are now doing an internship related to their studies are eligible to apply. The internship must be in Saxony and may begin before or after October 2025 and last until or after December 2025. The funding can only be for maximum 3 months (period from October to December 2025).

Additional points will be awarded for social and extracurricular engagement. Students who are already receiving a scholarship cannot be considered.

An application includes:

- Letter of motivation explaining why your internship is relevant for your course of studies
- A tabular CV
- Proof of matriculation
- Proof of German language skills (at least A1)
- Copy of the passport
- Proof of internship
- Proof of compensation from the company of at least 150€

Proof of social engagement is a plus.

We are looking forward to your application and encourage all students who meet the criteria to apply.

Application deadline: October 12th, 2025

The date of receipt of the documents in the Career Service applies.

The scholarship holders are nominated by a selection committee. After successful nomination, the documents must be resubmitted to the Student Union Freiberg.
